

Board of Directors

March 2020

President, Mark Little

Mark moved to Santa Fe in 1989, and is the owner of Mark C. Little Design Studio, an award-winning design firm. He is perhaps best known for designing the "Circle of the Way Temple" at the Upaya Zen Center on Cerro Gordo Road. Mark has received 4 merit awards over the years from Santa Fe's Historic Design Review Board and has been recognized by Western Interiors and Mountain Living magazines by being added to their GOLD LISTS.

He received his Bachelor's Degree in Architecture at the University of Kentucky. In addition, Mark owns two units at the Reserve and has been on the Board for almost 3 years, and has chaired the Architectural Committee for over 10 years.

Vice-President, Robin Zollinger

Robin has been a licensed real estate broker in Santa Fe since 1993, ranking among the top twelve performers for three consecutive years. She is widely recognized and respected as an expert in marketing, pricing, contracts, general product knowledge, and condominium ownership in particular. Additionally, she chairs Ethics and Arbitrations hearings and conducts mediations on behalf of the public and the Santa Fe Board of Realtors in matters related to brokerage disputes, professional standards and education. Robin has been a proud Owner in The Reserve for five years. In addition to her professional achievements in real estate, Robin has cooked professionally, still teaches cooking classes locally, and she and her partner David travel widely in the U.S. and intercontinentally.

Secretary, Monica Andersen

Monica Andersen was one of the original purchasers when the condo units were first offered for sale. She was a member of the first Board of Directors for the Reserve. She has served on the covenants and architectural committees and now serves on the Board and architectural committee.

She recently retired from Los Alamos National Laboratory. Her work history includes 24 years at Los Alamos National Laboratory in various Human Resources positions. Her last 10 years at the Laboratory were spent as a Six Sigma Black Belt, a process improvement specialist. Prior to working at the Laboratory, she was Senior Vice President of Administration at Del Norte Credit Union, Vice President of Human Resources for Charter Bank for Savings, and Human Resources Manager for Bates Container, a unionized manufacturing company located in Texas. She has an MBA from the University of New Mexico.

Treasurer, Mark Riek

Shortly after receiving his B.S. degree in Accounting from the University of Central Oklahoma, Mark moved to Telluride Colorado and started his accounting career within the hospitality industry. From there opportunities lead him to the Boulders in Carefree Arizona and eventually to Bishop's Lodge in Santa Fe as the Controller. He now works as the Finance Office for Del Norte Credit Union here in Santa Fe. Mark's career has kept him involved with financial reporting and budgeting for over 20 years. He has been a resident Owner at the Reserve since 2004.

Director, Jim Rammell

Jim has over 30 years of experience in the Engineering & Construction industry working on large industrial / process projects both domestically and internationally. He received his undergraduate degree from Virginia Tech and a MS in Management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, he is a licensed Professional Engineer in VA & NC and is employed at Los Alamos National Laboratory. Jim is married and has two adult daughters. He enjoys running, water and snow skiing, along with most outdoor activities.

Director, Dottie Starr

Dottie is a retired Real Estate Broker having been licensed in three states over 35 years. Her professional involvements have included residential development (including condos) most of which involved Homeowners Associations. Dottie now owns three units in The Reserve and was the first owner after the conversion from ShadowRidge. She continues to live and invest in north Santa Fe property. She wishes to help maintain the quality and integrity of The Reserve. She has an extensive management background; she has served on over 20 Boards in various capacities; and she has publicly opposed the development of the Northwest Quadrant adjacent to The Reserve.

Director, Arturo Delgado

Arturo has been Director of Marketing, Communications and Public Relations at CHRISTUS St. Vincent Regional Medical Center here in Santa Fe for 12 years. He has twenty-three years of public relations experience, specializing in health care strategic communications, marketing, advertising and awareness campaign planning and execution. A strong history of media, government, community, marketing, advertisement, crisis and internal communications. He is an owner with his wife and loves at The Reserve.

Executive Director, Nick Stofocik

Nick is General Manager of The Reserve at Santa Fe and Managing Agent of the homeowners' Association as well as Executive Director of the Board. As such he is a non-voting member of the Board. The Bylaws empower him to act at the direction of, and on behalf of, the Board.

Nick hails from Columbus Ohio but came to Santa Fe directly from New York City where managed boutique hotels in and around Times Square. After working in hotel industry and insurance world in Santa Fe, he is proud to call The Reserve his second home away from home. He has been the General Manager for 5+ years.
